As part of the oldest university press in the United States, the Johns Hopkins University Press Journals Division provides advertisers with a wealth of distinguished products to choose from. Since the addition of our online advertising option in 2013, we have a full suite available for your needs.

You can still place advertisements in your choice of 82 journals, but also have the opportunity to promote your products and events alongside the same content within Project MUSE®, the collection of online journals accessible by institutions around the world. We offer three sizes of online ads on the home page and table of contents pages of JHUP journals.

This platform provides access to millions of readers across the globe in a flexible and convenient format. Students and researchers will be just one click away from more information about your book, journal, or conference on pages accessible without a Project MUSE subscription.

You can expect the same level of professionalism and support whether you reserve advertising space in one of our printed journals or alongside the Project MUSE content. Contact us at journalsadvertising@press.jhu.edu or 410.516.6988.

ADVERTISING GUIDELINES

Advertising is accepted in most Johns Hopkins University Press print journals and online on the Project MUSE pages of most JHUP-published and distributed journals.

Ad Content

All copy is subject to publisher’s approval. The publisher reserves the right to deny any advertisement if artwork or content is deemed inappropriate.

Cancellations

Advertisers will be charged $25.00 per page/online ad for ads cancelled or received after the deadline.

Payment Terms

Payment is due 30 days from invoice date. Prepayment may be required from individuals or first-time advertisers. Invoice and tear sheets will be sent to the advertiser upon publication. Advertisers must pay for a complete copy of a journal where their advertisement appears. Invoice, screen shots, and statistics (impressions and click-throughs) will be sent to the advertiser within 30 days after an online ad is removed.

Print Advertising

Advertisements are available in the back matter of a journal and, in selected journals, on the inside and back covers. PDF files are required. Ad files should be submitted as composite PDFs v.1.3 (Acrobat 4.0 compatible) and ideally able to conform to ISO 15930 file format standards: PDF/X-1a:2001. The ISO standards are available as a preset in at least one popular page layout software.

- Images: Halftones (photos) should be scanned at a resolution of 266-300 dpi; a combination of line art and halftone at 500-900 dpi; line art, 900-1200 dpi. All images should be embedded.
- Fonts: All fonts should be embedded. Type 1 fonts are strongly recommended. No crop marks, placement information, registration marks, or slug lines in the file.
- Color: Supply ads in black and white format unless color is available as an option for a particular journal. Avoid all color functions such as ICC profiles.

For detailed guidelines for digital ads, visit our website at http://www.press.jhu.edu/journals/policies.html to see The Sheridan Press Guidelines. Advertisers will be notified if there is a problem with received ads. An additional fee of $50.00 will be charged if the resolution of the problem involves JHUP services. The Johns Hopkins University Press will not be held responsible for the reproduction quality of any ads that do not meet these specifications. If you have any questions or are unsure if your ad meets these specs, please contact the Journals Advertising Coordinator at journalsadvertising@press.jhu.edu.

Discounts

Advertisers are eligible for the following discounts:

Multiple Insertion Discounts

- 10% discount when placing two or more different ads in a volume of a single journal.
- 30% discount when placing the same ad a second time within a volume.

Agency Discounts

- 15% off ad rate (other charges are non-commissionable).

Discounts for Books Reviewed: Publishers whose books are reviewed in a journal receive a 10% discount for placing any ad in one issue of that journal.
ADVERTISING GUIDELINES (CONTINUED)

Online Advertising

Advertisers may place ads on the eligible journal home pages within Project MUSE or on the table of contents page for individual issues. Ad positions will be sold on a monthly basis with all contracts beginning on the first of the month. Advertisers may choose between an upper position on the right-hand side of the page or a lower position on the left-hand side of the page. The placements are shown on Page 3.

- File Types: Ads should be saved as web-ready files. Acceptable file types are GIF, PNG, and JPG.

- File Size: The maximum file sizes are 20K (148 x 60 and 148 x 90 ads) and 30K (148 x 240 ad).

- Animation: Recommended animation length for all ads is 15 seconds.

Advertisers will be notified if there is a problem with received ads. An additional fee of $50.00 will be charged if the resolution of the problem involves JHUP services. The Johns Hopkins University Press will not be held responsible for the reproduction quality of any ads that do not meet these specifications. If you have any questions or are unsure if your ad meets these specs, please contact the Journals Advertising Coordinator at journalsadvertising@press.jhu.edu.

PARTIAL ANSWERS JOURNAL OF LITERATURE AND THE HISTORY OF IDEAS

Partial Answers is an international, peer-reviewed, interdisciplinary journal that focuses on the study of literature and the history of ideas. Partial Answers strives to explore ways in which literary texts can be perceived both as works of art and as testing grounds for ideas. The editors believe literary works participate in the history of ideas, whether understood as a continuous line of development, as a process of inheriting and correcting schemas, or as a sequence of archeological layers.

Published twice a year in January and June.
For more than thirty years, Philosophy and Literature has explored the dialogue between literary and philosophical studies. The journal offers fresh, stimulating ideas in the aesthetics of literature, theory of criticism, philosophical interpretation of literature, and literary treatment of philosophy. Philosophy and Literature challenges the cant and pretensions of academic priesthoods through its assortment of lively, wide-ranging essays, notes, and reviews that are written in clear, jargon-free prose.

Published twice a year in April and October. Sponsored by Bard College.

Philosophy, Psychiatry, & Psychology (PPP) focuses on the area of overlap among philosophy, psychiatry, and abnormal psychology. The journal advances philosophical inquiry in psychiatry and abnormal psychology while making clinical material and theory more accessible to philosophers. PPP is the official journal of the Association for the Advancement of Philosophy and Psychiatry (AAPP).

Published quarterly in March, June, September, and December for the Association for the Advancement of Philosophy and Psychiatry (U.S.), the Philosophy Group in the Royal College of Psychiatrists (U.K.), and the Royal Institute of Philosophy (U.K.).

Poe Studies: History, Theory, Interpretation provides a forum for dialogue about Edgar Allan Poe’s life and writings, and about the cultural and material contexts that shaped the production and reception of his work. The editors wish to define “Poe studies” broadly—to include articles that engage the period in which Poe wrote, writers with whom he was affiliated or whom he inspired, theoretical and philosophical issues raised by his work, and artistic movements associated with him, such as gothicism, detective fiction, symbolism, and metafiction.

Published annually in October.
PORTAL  LIBRARIES AND THE ACADEMY

Focusing on important research about the role of academic libraries and librarianship, portal also features commentary on issues in technology and publishing. Written for all those interested in the role of libraries within the academy, portal includes peer-reviewed articles addressing subjects such as library administration, information technology, and information policy.

Published quarterly in January, April, July, and October.

POSTMODERN CULTURE

One of the earliest journals on the Internet, Postmodern Culture (PMC) started as a groundbreaking experiment in scholarly publishing. It has become a leading electronic journal of interdisciplinary thought on contemporary cultures. SEL STUDIES in ENGLISH LITERATURE

SEL focuses on four fields of British literature in rotating, quarterly issues: English Renaissance, Tudor and Stuart Drama, Restoration and Eighteenth Century, and Nineteenth Century. The editors select learned, readable papers that contribute significantly to the understanding of British literature from 1500 to 1900. SEL is well known for the commissioned omnibus review of recent studies in the field that is included in each issue.

Published quarterly in Winter, Spring, Summer, and Autumn for Rice University.

The SEWANEE REVIEW

Having never missed an issue in more than a century, the Sewanee Review is the oldest continuously published literary quarterly in the United States. Begun in 1892 at The University of the South in Sewanee, Tennessee, the Review is devoted to American and British fiction, poetry, and reviews—as well as essays in criticism and reminiscence. In this venerable journal, you’ll find the direct literary line to Flannery O’Connor, Robert Penn Warren, Hart Crane, Anne Sexton, Harry Crews, and Fred Chappell—not to mention Andre Dubus and Cormac McCarthy.

Published quarterly in Winter, Spring, Summer, and Fall.
SHAKESPEARE BULLETIN

Shakespeare Bulletin is a peer-reviewed quarterly journal which publishes articles at the cutting edge of Shakespearean and early modern performance studies and theatre history.
