

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction ix

PART I DIASPORIC KNOWLEDGE

- 1 É a Senzala: Slavery, Women, and Embodied Knowledge in Afro-Brazilian Candomblé 3

RACHEL ELIZABETH HARDING

- 2 "I Smoothed the Way, I Opened Doors": Women in the Yoruba-Orisha Tradition of Trinidad 19

TRACEY E. HUCKS

- 3 *Joining the African Diaspora: Migration and Diasporic Religious Culture
among the Garífuna in Honduras and New York* 37

PAUL CHRISTOPHER JOHNSON

- 4 *Women of the African Diaspora Within: The Masowe Apostles,
an African Initiated Church* 59

ISABEL MUKONYORA

- 5 "Power in the Blood": Menstrual Taboos and Women's Power in an African Instituted Church 81

DEIDRE HELEN CRUMBLY

PART II POWER, AUTHORITY, AND SUBVERSION

- 6 "The Spirit of the Holy Ghost is a Male Spirit": African American Preaching Women and the Paradoxes of Gender 101

WALLACE BEST

- 7 "Make Us a Power": African American Methodists Debate the "Woman Question," 1870–1900 128
MARTHA S. JONES
- 8 "Only a Woman Would Do": Bible Reading and African American Women's Organizing Work 155
ANTHEA D. BUTLER
- 9 Exploring the Religious Connection: Black Women Community Workers, Religious Agency, and the Force of Faith 179
CHERYL TOWNSEND GILKES
- PART III PERFORMING RELIGION
- 10 The Arts of Loving 199
LISA GAIL COLLINS
- 11 "Truths that Liberate the Soul": Eva Jessye and the Politics of Religious Performance 222
JUDITH WEISENFELD
- 12 Shopping with Sister Zubayda: African American Sunni Muslim Rituals of Consumption and Belonging 245
CAROLYN ROUSE
- 13 "But, It's Bible": African American Women and Television Preachers 266
MARLA FREDERICK-MCGLATHERY
- Notes 293
About the Contributors 357
Index 361