

Submissions to MLN (German issue) should be the author's original work, and accord with its author guidelines. Only submissions of 9,000 words or less will be considered for the German issue. Non-simultaneous submissions only, please. Submissions may be in English or German; translations of previously published material are not ordinarily considered. Preliminary review of essays will be undertaken by the editors, and those considered of sufficient scholarly quality and interest to our readership will be submitted to blind peer review. Peer reviewers will consider overall quality and contribution to scholarship. Acceptance may be contingent upon timely revisions, whether minor or major, if deemed necessary by the editors or reviewers. Revised manuscripts may be reviewed by the editors or, for more substantial revisions, resubmitted for blind review. Informal pieces may be reviewed by the editorial staff. While we aim to review submissions in a timely manner, occasional dedicated issues or guest editors means that time to publication for accepted works may vary.
