Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction When Do We Read? 1
The Shortness of Time oo / The Tense of Reading oo / Literature as Resistance oo
The Difference Time Makes oo / Media History as Literary Method oo

1 Time Divided oo
No Difference oo / Talbot’s Lack of Time oo / Breaking the Weekly Round oo
Some Sunday Readers oo / Sir Charles Comes and Goes oo

2 Joining Up Time oo
Rereading for Happiness oo / Slow Translation oo
Grenville’s Reading Journals oo / Lifetimes of Reading oo

3 Other Times oo
Reading in the Field oo / Linear and Random Access oo
Literature and Contingency oo / Amelia’s Beginning with the End oo
Sidney Bidulph and the Twice-Told Marriage oo / ‘The Griffiths’ Marriage by the Book oo

4 Time to Come oo
Stockpiling oo / Romantic Media oo / A Simple Story: Reading Comes Later oo
Godwin: The Future Is Now oo / Hardcover Truths oo / You Can’t Skip Pages oo

Coda Academic Time oo

Notes oo
Works Cited oo
Index oo